Fiduciary Law

A fiduciary is a person who holds a legal or ethical relationship of trust with one or more other parties (person or group of persons).

Typically, a fiduciary prudently takes care of money or other assets for another person. One party, for example, a corporate trust company or the

Oxford Handbook of Fiduciary Law - Oxford Handbooks

Overview. When someone has a fiduciary duty
to someone else,
the person with
the duty must act in a way that will benefit someone else, usually financially. The person who has a fiduciary duty is called the fiduciary, and the person to whom the duty is owed is called the principal or the beneficiary. If the fiduciary

Access Free Fiduciary Law

breaches the fiduciary duties, he or she would need to account for the ill-gotten profit.
