As a dark campaign to destroy both King and Parliament gathers pace, culminating in the Gunpowder Plot of 1605, Frances is surrounded by danger, finding happiness only with the King's precocious young daughter, and with Tom Wintour, the one courtier she feels she can trust.

The King's Witch: Frances Gorges historical trilogy, Book ...

The King's Witch is an entertaining and well written look at King James I's court, and his family relations, immediately after Queen Elizabeth I's death. I liked the vivid description of the anxieties and loyalties, or lack thereof, of a person navigating the new King's court, an environment marked by extreme and conflicting ideologies and behaviours.

Crusader Kings 3 lets you shape your ruler and dynasty as you see fit, one of its more special options letting you found a Witch Coven. Even in the absence of supernatural elements, this can be fun for roleplaying reasons and, on top of becoming sinful in the eyes of established faiths, can also offer its own bonuses that all characters in your CK3 Witch Coven benefit from.

The newly discovered tree markings in an English forest include "witch marks," which we will return to, and the most common marking, which is being called a "King's Mark" - that authorities say was used from the mid-18th to early 19th century. One message even commemorates the "summer of love" in 1967.
